January 2018 Edition

Kids R Kids of Castle Hills

Welcome to the New Year! The year 2017 was certainly one to be remembered. We enjoyed so many special times with our families and cherished the memories of celebrating developmental milestones with the children. The curriculum units and delivery by the teachers formed a foundation for an amazing year of educational advancement for the kiddos. This year you can expect that development to continue as the children learn even more about the world around them. In January we will continue to talk about winter themes like: "Winter Weather", "Keeping Warm in Winter", "Winter Animals", "The Arctic", and many more. We are looking forward to another great month as we kick-off 2018!
